"When one man, for whatever reason, has the opportunity to lead an extraordinary life, he has no right to keep it to himself." Through living his life, he touched the lives of countless people and shared himself with them. He created legacies and memories that will carry on for generations to come. Leading by example, his life was a demonstration of what hard work, courage, commitment, and the willingness to change can bring to a person. Cheerful, with a booming laugh that could light up a room, he was never one for much ceremony, but always ready for a joke. A man that wasn't afraid to love, or to lose. The world gained something when John Shade was born, and has lost something with his passing. He will always be loved and missed.

Big Johnny Shade was probably one of the coolest guys in Locust Point. Nothing ever seemed to rattle him. Always offering up a big smile with his eyes twinkling in the delight of seeing you. You will be missed John. The loss is bittersweet.

We will miss you terribly but you are now out of pain in the best company ever!

My deepest sympathy to all of my cousins, their wives and children. May God give you strength through this most difficult time in your life.

Dad, Goodbye is a word that fills us with dread. It's so final, so painful, yet we are glad for your sake your illness is done. And now at long last you are free of the pain you suffered so bravely. And so there is peace in our hearts today, though we still feel sad and shed tears. Thank you for all you've meant and been. At your passing we've really seen how much you meant to us and to others too. There are just so many who mourn for you and though you've left us we know today that close to our hearts you will always stay. Love you, John
