Dear Margaret, I didn't want to bother you when I heard she was in hospice, I supposed that you were with her. I only remember meeting her once or twice, but she was very sweet and a real lady. I am so sorry for your family's loss and sorry I can't come home for the funeral. This is a very nice picture of her. I know you and she were very close. Please know that I'm thinking of you and Jess.
