Too many memories to post just one, But hanging out at Henry's on so many occasions, you were my boss for a short time when I DJ'd there. I remember loading up the beer in the cellar with you. I knew you from the time I could probably talk and walk. Say hello to my old best friend, your little brother Johnny for me. We'll all hang out one day up there and talk about the good ole days!! RIP JOE 🙏🙏

Dear sweet Joe Klem, I have many many fond memories of High School. Especially Mr. Watson's biology class...lol.. I cannot imagine the pain your mom is suffering having lost yet another son and so soon after losing her beloved Jerry. I will never forget you dear friend, give Greg, John and Mr. Jerry a hug when they greet you in Heaven.

May the love of family and friends and the memories help ease your hearts during this difficult time...no loss is ever easy but the idea of reuniting once again when our time ends is what gives us hope for a better day ahead...our journey here is so short and our ability to love is why it hurts when we lose those who pass first. May you find comfort in one another in the days ahead...God bless you once again
