This is Mike, Tommy's step brother. I have many memories of us from my early teens. Dad and I were just talking about this the other day. When I was in my early teens, and was living in Arbutus on Link Avenue. Tommy and I set up the old Christmas lights that look like candles. Somehow Tommy convinced me to plug up the lights in the garage, and then we began to shoot out the lights with my BB gun. We always blamed each other for doing this. However I really believe that I was the one who pushed and pressured Tommy to shoot them out. Moments like these I'll never forget. Lol. I'll miss you Bro,

Tommy--the only thing that makes my heart ache any less is remembering all of the wonderful memories and laughs we shared and made together, and the peace in knowing that you will never again suffer! I know that you are wrapped in God's sweet embrace, surrounded by loved ones and watching over us left here without you. You have already left a hole in us that can only be filled when we see each other again in Heaven!! May God, His angels and you comfort us all--- we love you so much, Tammy & John
