Tommy, you were my best friend, we were like brothers. We did everything together. Even though we lost touch later on, I will never forget all the good times we shared growing up. All the fishing trips, crabbing on the weekends at my grandparents house. Oh yea, and also cleaning my grandfathers car so we would have the keys to ride it around the neighborhood. The funny thing is my grandfather knew what we were doing. No kid is willing to wash a car every weekend Lol. But I think one of the best times we had was the summer we spent in Florida at my Grandparents house. You will be missed. I WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU MY BROTHER.

Tommy... I can't even believe that you are gone. I thought that no matter how tough life got...or what was in store for you...Tommy Zollars was tough as nails and indestructible. You always looked out for me like I was your little sister. Even if we hadn't seen each other in forever...if I needed you to have my back you were there...even at times i didn't expect it. So many memories I couldn't ever possibly list them all. You and David were the first visitors that my mom listed in my baby book when I was born. I will never forget our times growing up at camp with me, you, David, Eric, Brian, and Scotty. Remember Superman at the pool. LOL. I don't think we will ever forget him. Or when you got us all chased by a bear on a three-wheel electric golf cart because you had to pee in the woods. LMAO. And I will never forget the sound of your laugh! Anyone who knows you would agree to that! You were not perfect, but none of us are. You've made mistakes, but so do we all and no sin is greater than another. I know there are a lot of things that you would have done differently if you had the chance to do it all over again but one thing is for certain, YOU WERE REAL! And when you loved someone, whether it was your child, family, a friend, you loved that person with all your heart even if you didn't always show it. I hope that you were able to find God in your last hours as you did and you're stronger days when I would see you at church with your mom. I'm sure that you did because GOD loves you just as much as he loves all of those imperfect people who judge you and think they know your story and your heart. Until we meet again one day... We will miss you! LOVE YOU CUZ!
