I am so sorry, but I just found out George had passed away. I was a neighbor. George and I used to watch the July 4 fireworks on the steps of St. Mary's Star of the Sea. He used to walk by my house and tap on the window to get me. I also met Miss Ellen at the Glen Burnie Nursing Home. She used to sing "He Touched Me" with me. They were a spirit filled couple and now they are in heaven. I wish I had known because I would have attended his homecoming. I see the house is for sale, but George now has a mansion in heaven. God bless his family. Sharon Kirk
