My deepest sympathies to my extended Clark family on the loss Pat. My fondest memories of Pat are of the times spent at the family cabin in West Virginia. My first and only hunting experience with Pat, Katie, Bobby (Jr.) and Pop (Bobby Sr.). We hiked into the woods, under the direction of Pop we were advised to be still, keep quiet and look for deer. Needless to say, Pat and Bobby had other plans. They began throwing sticks and telling their father that a deer was near. Katie and I got to giggling over this and that's when the excursion ended! Those crafty brothers managed to lay the blame on us girls! Love, Bridget
