It's been a year since you've passed and I can't believe it still. Pop Pop, I miss you and I love you. It was hard to go on without you, but I know you'll always be with me even when I can't see you. I love you more than words can describe. Thank you for loving me unconditionally and being the best grandfather a girl could ever ask for. Your Granddaughter, Hannah Banana :)

Pop Pop, I am crying as I write this to you. I miss you. I love you. I would've done anything to save you and the same could be said for mommy and daddy. I love more than words can describe. I will miss being on the boat, watching you play golf, going to the donut shack with you, and everything we ever did together. XOXO, Hannah

Charles, I write this with a heavy heart. Larry and I did not see you often, but when we did, you were always the life of the party. You were always happy. Dee loved you for who you were. You were a most unique person. You had so many friends. Probably too many friends. You were a most generous person. You were a kind person. You were a funny person and you enjoyed life to the fullest. You loved your family and took care of them. I know you expected to live for many more years but even though you are not here in body, I assure you, you are here in spirit. You will not be forgotten, especially when we have to hire a new Santa. Say Hi to your dad to all of us and one day we will all be together again. Til then, we will keep you in our hearts and keep Dee and your family who you loved so much in our prayers. Annie - your sister-in-law who thought the world of you and admires Dee for her courage and strength and faith at this most difficult time. (I am praying for you Dee).

When I think about Uncle Charles, I think Aunt Dee, Debbie, Jason, golfing and boating (the See Dee). Aunt Dee told me the See Dee was not really named after her like Uncle Charles said but was really after himself as his initials are CD. Between Aunt Dee and Uncle Charles, you were always laughing when they were around. On Monday as I'm not able to join the family, I will be celebrating your life Uncle Charles by playing a game of Golf after work in honor of you. I love you. Please say hi to Pop-pop for me. You were a great Uncle and the best Santa.

Uncle Charles~ thank you for being such a wonderful and fun uncle. I have so many memories of him. His sense of humor...was great. Of course, I didn't understand most his jokes till I got a little older...I remember visiting him and Aunt Dee at Disney every February for one day while I lived in FL. They would treat me to a whole day of fun. I even had my first margarita with Uncle Charles in Mexico at Epcot. Uncle Charles would always tease me and tell me he was going to buy me a corvette, but first I would have to do various things. I'm pretty sure that is not going to happen now. But I did get to drive his! My favorite memory of him is of him tell me "secrets." He would ask me, "Robin, do you want to know a secret?" and of course I did, and then he would spit in my ear! Sadly, I was not quick on the uptake and this went on for years. However, one year at Christmas I returned the gesture sitting on "Santa's" lap and it became a tradition once again, except in reverse. I am so sad that he is gone, that I will never again hear one of his "jokes" or "comments" that made us laugh or shake our heads. I hear his voice right now in my head, or at least, I can only imagine the things he would be saying right now. While I miss him, I am glad that he passed doing something that he loved. I imagine the only better way for him to have passed would have been if there was a republican president, no welfare, and he was golfing on his boat. I like to think he passed as a "happy" man, I know Aunt Dee was a wonderful wife, simply because she is a wonderful aunt. Plus, he had his grandchildren and children. Since it was his time, I am glad it was this way. I will always smile when thinking of him.
