Barbara Ann Laukaitis posted:

Today is the memorial feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel --- perhaps Kirk would be very pleased to be buried on a feast day of Mother Mary, whom he loved so much. Many memories of Kirk, especially in company of our friend Harold --- New Year's Eve celebrations at the Harbor, birthdays, and of course, Epiphany gatherings. Continued prayers and remembrances for Kirk and for his family in the days ahead.

We are so reminded of Harold and Kirk (the father/son act) and Harold passed on July the 8 th., five (5) years to the day of Kirk's passing. I will miss our conversations in reference to the Saint's that Kirk was so knowledgeable about. Many memories of the parties on Foster Avenue. Peace, Dolores
