Ms. Pat was a person you couldn't help but love the first time you met her. You felt like you knew her your whole life. She always had a smile on her face. She was always impeccably dressed. She would never miss an opportunity to say hello, give you a big hug and ask about you. She will be missed. May she rest in peace and as she meets our Lor & Savior, He greets her will well done my good and faithful servant! May God bring her family lease and comfort during this difficult time. I begged nanny to get in the water with me in Ocean City 2015, and she denied telling me "it's too cold." Sure enough moments later I got up and went to take her hand and walk down to the water and we went in. She had the biggest smile in her face and pure joy. I'll never forget this ocean city trip with the entire family and all the laughs with Nanny. I love nanny and she will always be in my heart.

It cannot be said that Pat didnt love her family. She adored them. We met in 1986 and hit it off immediately. We may not have seen each other a lot, due to work and distance. But when we talked on phone or visited, it was always so comfortable and fun. I am sad for her remaining family who loved her and will miss her. Dear friend, we shall all meet again. You loved the Lord, were so spiritual, and I know you are smiling down from that beautiful place we call Heaven. (I Dont think you will need ALL those scatter rugs up there, lol)

After my wife of 45 years passed away in early 2017, our son suggested I consider moving from Greenbelt to Odenton to be closer to where he and his wife lived. It was my good fortune not ony to find an apartment at The Groves, but to be next door to Pat. I could not ask for a finer neighbor and will miss her very much. We communicated with each other often, and she was consistently pleasant and upbeat. I discovered that Pat had occasional cravings for such items as Tasty Cake cupcakes and the glazed donuts with chocolate icing at Giant. She knew I went to Giant and Food Lion several times a week and would call if she wanted me to pick up anything for her. A few months ago she asked me not to get her any more donuts. A few weeks later I brought her a donut (unrequested). She accepted it but later told me it was in her freezer, uneaten. I remarked that I was amazed at her willpower, and she laughed. Pat was a delightful individual, loved her family very much, and was a woman of God. May she rest in eternal peace.
