Honestly I'd have to say that my favorite memory was a reoccurring one. At least once a year Mom Mom would get out her photo albums and she would go through page by page reminiscing about her wedding and family. She would always stop and guff at the picture where she and her husband were standing in the hallway. Her wrist was bent and her mouth was slightly open. It is just such a happy and candid moment. We would sit and she'd reminisce about so many beautiful memories. Each time there was something new to learn. Hearing her laugh... Watching her glow... Thank you Mom Mom. We love you forever.
