You were so fun and always offered me a smile. Our lives have been so blessed because of the joy you brought with you and shared with all of those who were lucky to know you. Go with God. You will be missed but the legacy and stories you leave us will keep your light burning! Rest in Peace. Ms. Angie.

Pops, words cannot express how much you mean to us. Words of Wisdom you have shared with me since the day we met. You trying to teach Tina how to play chess... me saying good luck with that! You will be physically missed but I know you will always be with us. Love you Pops!

Dad: You have made me the person I am today. I will never ever forget all the talks we had throughout the years. I remember your famous a dollar down and a dollar when they catch me talk, to never look someone in the eye when doing public speaking, to our famous "how to beat slot machines". I remember my wedding day when you took my hand and placed it in Gary's hand because you were crying so hard you couldn't finish dancing to our sing Daddy's little girl. I wish this was all a nightmare and I would wake up. I miss you dad soooooo much!! And oh yes let's not forget how I got my nickname lumpy lump - for those inquiring minds when I was born on a cold winter day and was ready to be released from South Baltimore hospital my dad swore the blanket was just a lump and no baby. You made the nurse unwrap me just to show you your little girl was in there !! What I wouldn't do to hear that story again. I love you daddy !! Rest In Peace Love Michele xoxo

Dad- your work here is now done. Go on with your next journey Without your lifetime guidance I would not be living in a big house but living in the big house. I truly appreciate all your guidance thruout the years . Rest in peace. God bless you. With love your son Bruce. And dont worry we will take care of Jean Jean .
