Dear Jeanie and Family, My deepest condolences for the passing of Bill. Bill was a amazing and such a kind person. Going down memory lane, I really enjoyed playing soccer on the same team with Bill in soccer coed league late at night. In addition, Pete Jr. and I rally enjoyed going to DC United games with Bill, you, and Mikey. I surely miss him. Pete

Dear Jean, I am deeply saddened by the passing of your husband. My heartfelt condolences and sincere empathy go out to you and your family. I'm praying that your treasured memories of him will, in due time, warm your hearts and provide peace and comfort. I'm also including in my prayers that you'll have the strength that will sustain you today...and the hope to make each passing day brighter. Time, I know, is a great healer and provides immeasurable resilience and fortitude. Blessings, love and peace, Virginia from the Lunch Bunch
