David Schoeberlein

DEC 22, 1951 - MAR 18, 2024

Suddenly, on Monday, March 18, 2023, David Joseph Schoeberlein (“Dave”), of South Baltimore, passed away at the age of 72.

Dave was born and raised in Locust Point, Baltimore City, to David Schoeberlein and Dorothy (Alexander) Schoeberlein. As a child, he joined the Boy Scouts and earned his Eagle Scout at 14 years of age. He later became an Assistant Scoutmaster in troops 649 and 749, leading backpacking trips on segments of the Appalachian Trail. Dave graduated from Baltimore Polytechnic Institute in 1969 and later earned a degree in Mathematics from Loyola College in 1990. Dave worked for the U.S. Dept. of Energy for 25 years, retiring in 2017.

Dave was a man of simple pleasures, who loved fishing, history, travel, and most of all, spending time with his family. Dave loved Christmas, decorating the house inside and out and setting up a train garden for his grandchildren. He was a loyal friend and neighbor who assisted anybody who needed help or advice on any range of things from home repairs to math Homework.

Dave is predeceased by his father, David Schoeberlein. He is survived by his mother, Dorothy Schoeberlein, his wife of 49 years, Marsha (Rooney) Schoeberlein, his daughters, Jennifer Lovett (William Lovett) and Emily Thayer (Scott Thayer), and grandchildren, Summer Lovett and Hendricks Thayer. He is also survived by siblings Patricia Butrow, Dorothy Wright, Joseph Schoeberlein, Annette Smith and Edward Schoeberlein, and many beloved nieces, nephews, in-laws and extended family.

Services will be private. A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, May 4, 2024, from 1:00-5:00 pm at Church of the Redemption’s Bishop Paret Memorial Hall in Locust Point, 1401 Towson Street, Baltimore.

Dave and I spent time fishing, floating on the BarcaLounger down the river, camping in Pennsylvtuckey and wading in the Juniata as the Tootsie Roll Twins. Spending time with Dave was always lots of laughs. I will miss Dave and our time together.

From Paul Kohlhoff, my sincere condolences. Even though Dave was older than me, he was always this powerhouse of kindness that made people around him feel better. I went through school with his younger brother Joe who is also a wonderful person. Your family will always be remembered as a blessing to all that knew you. Prayers lifted up. God bless.

To my Aunt and Cousins, who I love,I pray that your memories of David will help ease your sorrows in the days to come. You have each other to hold, support and love. Your memories and each other are God's gifts to you.I remember the first time I met all of you, it was at David's and Marsha's wedding. Marsha was so beautiful and David was beaming looking at Marsha and you could feel the love. My cousins were there and for me it was like Christmas Day meeting all of you.David was kind and giving to me and I will remember him with fondness.I hope your memories and each other will lesson your sorrows.Your loving Cousin,John

I lost my big brother. I'm crying because I'm hurting. I'm rejoicing because David lived a wonderful life and he lived it well and true to himself. David you have always shown love, patience, a sense of calm and shared your knowledge. I enjoyed sitting around the campfires listening to you playing the guitar and singing fun and beautiful Irish tunes. I will miss you playing Black Velvet Band just for me. I miss you already.

I am very sad to hear of Daves passing; sincere consolations to Marsha and his family. Although we didn't communicate often, I alway felt and he and I had a lot in common. Despite the fact that Dave was my half-nephew, we were about the same age. During summers when we were kids, Dave would spend a week at my house, frequently camping out in the backyard and having a good time. In exchange, I would spend a week at his house fishing with his father, and building crystal radio sets. After my dad (Daves grandfather) passed away, Mom and I spent Christmas Day at Daves house with his mom, dad, siblings and significant others. We always had a great time. Much later, Dave and I would exchange emails concerning Schoeberlein acnestry; because we both loved math, and I occasionally would shoot him a problem I couldn't solve. I will miss him.

To me Dave was the older big brother to his siblings. I would see him coming and going from the family home on Fort Ave. My heart goes out to his family especially Marsha and his 2 girls, son in laws and grandchildren.

Dave and Marsha have been our neighbors for 26 years. They are the matriarch and patriarch of our Covington Street. In good weather or bad, we would see Dave puttering outside, fixing up something, or loading the truck for fishing. With a smile and greeting always we connected. Scott and Dave often talked for an hour on his front stoop. I watched his eyes light up whenever he was with his precious Summer (Renee) (but not named after me, so they said---lol) or just speaking of her adventures. Pure Grandfather love. I know she will remember him ! We also watched beautiful Emily grow up, finish School, and attended her gorgeous beach wedding to her Scott. All of the Schoeberlein family are kind, loving, and generous people. Now when I open the front door and do not see David, my heart and Scott's heart will miss him. Scott will miss fishing with Dave. We will miss the comfort of knowing he is nearby. We will look out for Marsha, maybe be a fix-it person as Dave was. We know his spirit lives on in his lovely wife, daughters, Jennifer and Emily, Summer, and Hendricks. Peace and healing to all the family. Sincerely, Scott and Renee Conway
