Delores Marlene (Nee Tudor) Wireman

JUN 5, 1947 - FEB 22, 2025

Delores Marlene (Nee Tudor) Wireman passed away on February 22, 2025. She is survived by her husband Jack of 35 years, her four sons Donald Gary and wife Paula, Ronald, Michael and Jamie Detress, her siblings Carrol Dixon, the late Judith Bianco, the late Geraladine Owens, S.J. “Bill” Tudor, Christine Newman and husband Craig. She is also survived by her grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, great nieces, nephews, great nephews, too many to mention but all very special to Delores. Of note are Brenda Foor and Glen Delorenzo who came into Dolores’ life when Glen was born twenty-eight years ago. They both became her family as well. Anita Good was her first niece, born when Delores was only ten years old. She called Anita “the daughter that she never had.” Delores was special in so many ways. She loved people, and if she liked or loved you, you were her friend for life. She was loved by so many, and is missed by all who knew her.

She struggled so hard, so long with the many maladies that ravaged her body, but she lost the battle. We are comforted and solaced knowing that her fight has ended and she is not suffering anymore.

Aunt Lorie was a very special aunt as well as a sister friend confidant and mother to me. I grew up with her and my other aunts and uncles and became like a little sister to all of them, lol. You will surely be missed my girl! I am so very happy that you are with Grandma, mom Jimmy and many others who were there to greet you! Please know when it's my time that I'll be looking for all of you to greet me in such a beautiful holy place! I love you on the bottom of my heart!

Shannon Welch lit a candle in honor of Delores.

This is Shannon, Jamie Detress' significant other, I called her Mama D., we never got as close as we both wanted to because of my work schedule but I always loved her energy when I was around her. She was always so kind and welcoming to me as a newcomer to the family. I loved hearing her stories, she certainly had a wild streak! I am glad she is finally at peace and no longer in pain. She will be missed. I love you, Mama D.
