With a heavy heart I share this memory of my sister-in-law. In the mid 1990's there was a little bar named Teazer's in South Baltimore and that is where I hung out with my friends. Donna, Jim and some of her family could be found there 2 to 3 nights a week. One night I stopped in to say hi and have a beer. There was a woman playing shuffle bowl that I did not know, she was a pretty redhead. I went to Donna and asked who is the new girl at the shuffle bowl she is hot. Donna was a few beers into the night, with her loudest voice she turned and called for Charlene to come over. To my surprise the hot redhead walked over. Before I could say a word, Donna with a very loud voice told her sister Charlene this is Bill and I wanted you to meet him, he is a good man and just what you need. Well less than a year later we got married. Thanks to my friend, sister-in-law Donna and her match making skills. She told me and I Quote "You know when you Know, You Know!", I will miss you until we meet in Heaven. Love you , Bill.
