“ Brian - It's been 6 years since your death, and still not a day goes by without feeling regret that we didn't reconnect. Growing up, I looked up to you so much. You were my older cousin who would always show me an adventure. I still tell stories about how we'd explore all the apartment buildings around Nanny & Pop Pop's house in Philly. Or climbed up on top of the Bell Telephone Building and you had to knock on the door to ask them to let me down from the 4th floor balcony because I was too scared to climb down myself. Or when you'd come visit me in Roslyn and you would show me how good of a hinting dog Buffy was - showing me all the commands she knew. Or those summers down the shore in Wildwood and Brigantine. Such great memories. I would always ask Uncle Fred (your dad) how you were doing and he'd say you were good, but when I would ask for a phone number or some other way to get in touch, he'd promise me the info but it just never happened. I always hoped we would reconnect because all of us cousins have remained so close over the years. We're have such a tight, loving family and you never got the chance to experience most of it. It will always be one of my biggest regrets because of course now it's too late to contact you and reminisce with you. I just hope, wherever you are, it isn't because I forgot about you. That never happened, and I'm so sorry I waited too long.

Miss you Brian

Mike Reiser

“ Still missing you. You were a great guy and didn't deserve this! We tried dating a couple times but life led us in different places. We were always close though. Wish I would have known what was going on but I didn't and we can't go back. Love you Reiser! Until we meet at the platty in Paradise!

“ We'll uncle brian I don't know where to start... For many years I pretty much lived at your house. We used to have so much fun going camping and crabbing. I'll never forget all the times we all shared together. The best memory I have is that night we were so excited to go camping that we couldn't wait until the next morning so we went and we didn't have a light on the boat and it was really dark and when we were looking for a place to park the boat and camp the coast guard seen us and we're shining there light at us and we were hiding behind the rocks and the waves were so bad they started coming in the boat and we started to sink and we had to use are shoes to bail the water out. Then the deers ate holes in our clothes. We'll I could go on forever about all the fun time me, you, tiff and aunt Paula had. I'm terribly sorry that this happened to you. Nobody deserves to die that way. I wish that so much time didn't pass since we last saw each other. REST IN PARADISE. I love you!!!!!!!

“ Thank you brian for all the great memories. You were a great uncle to tabitha and Brandon, they always talked about going fishing and crabbing with you. Although we haven't seen each other in a few years you were always a friend. So sorry your life ended so soon, we will miss you deeply.. See you again someday. Keep a close eye on your baby girl. She loves you.

“ Brian was great friend to me and my family for many years. We will truly miss him. Always there to lend a helping hand or just visit a while and drink a beer or two. May you rest in peace my friend. You will always be in our hearts. Sending prayers to his family and friends at this most sad time.

“ My deepest sympathy to the Reiser family. My family and I can't get our heads wrapped around what has happened to Brian and we can't imagine what The Reiser family is going through.

Brian was a good man. He was always there to lend a helping hand to anyone. He had a great laugh we always enjoyed talking to him and sharing funny stories. He helped my husband SO much to remodel my mother's house and Frank remarked so many times what a great carpenter Brian was. He had wonderful ideas and suggestions and helped make the visions come together.

He gave our son a bunch of crab traps last summer to help get him on his way to becoming a crabber. He took our son a a couple jobs with him last summer and I know they both had a great time. It was work but they made it fun and got the jobs done.

Elliott just remarked last weekend that he wanted to call Brian to see if he could work with him sometime this summer. He also looked forward to fishing/crabbing with Brian soon.

You were taken away too soon Brian, but you can now sit back with the lines in the water all the time. Thanks for the laughs. You will be missed by many.

Again our deepest condolences to the Reiser family.
God Bless.

“ Because of my dad I was a tomboy not a little girly girl. He taught me how to shoot my first gun, were there when I shot my first deer when I was 10, when I caught my first fish. Taught me how to ride a bike basically everything. I forgive you for every and anything. I can't believe your gone and I'll never get to see you again. I love you forever and always! Your little girl your only child Tiffany Marie Reiser
