“ Cathy my dear wife you gave me 52 years of marriage most of them were good we hit some rough spots for that I am sorry. I loved you with my whole being we had our challenges but we were friends all the way. You came into my life in High School gave me a wonderful son Christopher . You were a great mom to him and a good wife to me I always knew you cared and loved me in many ways . I will miss you for the rest of my life I hope that one day in heaven to get to see you again . Cathy I love you and I miss you . Rest well my dear wife your pain of life is gone and you are with your son and your dad both loved you very much . Say hi to mom for me look for the butterflies my love look for the butterflies
